Mongolian and Negroid Jews Swarm into the USA

WASHINGTON, D. C., — The most closely guarded secret in Washington today is immigration into the United States. Who gets into America and who is kept out is not disclosed to the American public.

All details of immigration are shrouded in totalitarian secrecy by the immigration service under a directive issued by the attorney general on May 2, 1939, reportedly at the command of the late President Roosevelt.

"All official files, documents, records, and information in the offices of the department of justice, including the several offices of the United States attorneys, federal bureau of investigation, United States marshals, and federal penal and correctional institutions, or in control of any officer or employe of the department of justice, are to be regarded as confidential," the directive reads.

DISCLOSURE IS FORBIDDEN

"No officer or employe may permit the disclosure or use for any purpose other than for the performance of his official duties, except in the discretion of the attorney general, the assistant to the attorney general, or an assistant attorney general acting for him."

Only a dribble of information on immigration to this country has come out since this directive was issued. The immigration service flatly refuses to tell what aliens are entering the country.

Last June 9 Atty. Gen. Clark estimated 2,000 persons a day were entering this country illegally. Only half of these, he added, are being arrested by border patrols.

TOTAL 720,000 A YEAR

Two thousand illegal entries a day is 60,000 a month and 720,000 a year. Many of those arrested returned because they are advised to go to Canada or Mexico to get a visa and reenter.

On Nov. 26, 1943, former Asst. State Secretary Breckenridge Long testified in an executive session of the house foreign affairs committee that President Roosevelt had set up an agency to rescue people from Europe.

307,000 VISAS ISSUED

Under the Presidential machinery, he testified, more than 307,000 visas of all kinds were granted to persons from enemy or enemy occupied territory. Most of these came in on visitors visas.

Since that time, and particularly since the end of the war, refugees have been pouring into the country in far greater numbers, it is reliably reported.

From 1940 to 1945 more than 250,000 immigrants were admitted to the United States under the quotas fixed by law and entitled to seek citizenship. These persons, it is reported, comprise only a small part of the total number admitted on visitors' visas or entering illegally.

Long's testimony before the house committee was given in protest against adoption of resolution calling for the establishment of "a commission to effectuate the rescue of the Jewish people of Europe." Long argued that it was unnecesary to create a commission because the President had taken the matter into his own hands.

over here. They are setting the stage for a huge Purim feast, if you have any graymatter to know what that means.

Anyway, finally, a Congressional report has been released telling you today what you were reading in THE BROOM 2 to 4 years ago about the results of Russian activities in Europe and specially in Germany and the use they make of German slaves and ingenuity to prepare for war against the USA. Also that Germany should be administered as a unit and the Russians should get out of Germany. Comes now Agronsky and defends Russia, paid for with Spreckels Company money, to teach us that Russia is right and our Congress is wrong.

This is exactly what I am persistently warning against and for which the Jews are blacklisting and boycotting THE BROOM. We are importing the Agronsky's by the millions from Europe to form a band of terrorists, propagandists, fifth columnists for Russia. Where are the 4 millions Jews who seem to have disappeared from the face of the earth? Did Hitler kill them? Hell, no! They entered the USA surreptitiously, but keep on hollering they are dead that they may not be counted and identified. They all have money and buy up everything in sight, crying they are persecuted, while preparing the way for Russian invasion.

Don't say I did not warn you.

Editor's Note: We notice that the contract, of sponsoring Agronsky, with the Spreckels people expired and City Chevrolet now sponsors this pro-Russian propagandist.

A Republican Mayor for San Diego?

The political pot for city elections is starting to boil. San Diego elections are around the corner in the spring. Already our local politicians are beginning to look around for available timber. The newdealers have had their own sweet way even in the city. Now they are on the way out and the Republicans are beginning to wonder whether it is good business to keep newdealers in city offices when the state of California and the federal administration is manned by Republicans. Earl Warren carried both tickets, which proves how despicable the newdeal is to California voters and now that the nation is following the same lead, is it profitable to have a newdeal mayor and council to do business with the Republican state and federal administrations?

Evidently the businessmen, as well as the far-seeing section of the voters, figure that horse-sense alone would advise to get Republicans into the city office to "bring home the bacon" from Washington and Sacramento, if for no other reasons. But the other reasons are overwhelming in themselves.

The newdeal has ruined the small businessman for the profit of the cartel corporations which are gobbling up the previous markets of the erstwhile independent business concerns. And, naturally, it would be good business in the process of reconversion to have conservative officials who are interested in the American way of life in preference to the newdeal. Hence it would be good business to place in charge of the city old time Americans who would happily lead the way to return to sanity.

Today we shall report on the suggestions which are put forth for the office of mayor. If other candidates are suggested, we shall review them too. At present Ed Hastings, former supervisor and a small businessman who has suffered immense loss under the newdeal subversion of the American way of life, has been suggested for mayor. He knows what havoc has been done to San Diego small business and he will not be slow in putting the finger on the sore spots to bring about better conditions to the extent that the powers of the mayor and his prestige at Washington and Sacramento count.

But the mayor alone does not run the city. New blood on the council is needed, too.

San Diego Street Car Company Finances Communist Propaganda

For some time I have been wondering how it comes that Sam Mason and the Spreckels Company use the profits they make, if any, from the San Diego street car operation, to finance a Jewish Russian propagandist over KFMB at 7:15 in the morning. They must be hard put to find American commentators, it appears, since the Newdeal system of licensing radio stations has cleared the air of Americans and staffed them with Jews.

The particular one, Martin Agronsky, has even his Washington comment recorded for special delivery before James Abbe comes on. Abbe, an American of whom any sponsor may be proud, while Agronsky is an apologist for Jewish terrorists in Palestine and open defender of Russia and Russian activities in destroying Europe.

Of course, I am against Jewish terrorism as well as Communism. What I foretold years ago, now the fools who did not listen to me see it going on. Those Jews are terrorists and what they do over there they are preparing to do

Lawless Persecutors Follow Morgenthau Plan

NUERNBERG, Germany,—American prosecutors, undismayed by the international military tribunal's decision acquitting the German general staff, are preparing individual prosecutions against high ranking militarists under Adolf Hitler. The trials will be based principally on the charge of waging aggressive war.

Fish Debates Rogge and "Carlson" Over the Air

Ex-Congressman Is Booed by Reds in Radical Studio Audience

NEW YORK, Dec. 24 (Special). — Ex-Congressman Hamilton Fish of New York, holder of numerous decorations for bravery and distinguished service as a colonel in World War I, is a man of unquestioned guts, otherwise he would never have consented to appear last night in radio station WHN's famous "Books on Trial" as prosecutor of the slander book, "The Plotters", and its author, Avedis Boghus Akhassian — the Armenian - Greek who writes under the pen name of "John Roy Carlson".

Defending "Carlson" was O. John Rogge— the notorious prosecutor of the late so-called "sedition" case in Washington, D. C. So far Mr. Fish was to face two opponents before a hostile, radical Red group of studio spectators; but to make his task even more one-sided, he had a third opponent,—the acting "judge" on the bench was Sterling North, (where did he get that name?) of the literary staff of the pinkish New York Post, which belongs to Mrs. Dorothy Schiff Thackrey; and "Judge" North certainly opened the case with as prejudiced and one-sided a prologue as ever was heard, praising the work of the "Carlsons" and excoriating "rightists."

FISH CALM AMIDST ENEMIES

Fish was allowed less than ONE - FOURTH of the 30 minutes the show was on, but he got in such telling blows that the "pink" packed auditorium of the Barbion-Plaza hotel booed and tried repeatedly to shout him down.

Mr. Fish opened his attack by stating that he knew his studio audience was hostile and radical, but that the microphone before him gave him access to perhaps a million or more listeners, and that was the only reason he was willing to beard the radicals in their lair. So, whenever the Reds roared to drown the champion of peace and Americanism, he would move a bit closer to the mike.

He stoutly challenged "the sneaking tactics, the libelous statements and lack of ethics" of Mr. Derounian-Carlson, and quoted what U. S. Justice Barnes of Chicago said of Carlson and his publishers, Dutton & Co., "they would do anything for a dollar, and I would not believe Carlson under oath, now or hereafter."

"Have you got a single bit of criminal evidence against any single American?" Fish asked Carlson.

"I'm a reporter, not a criminal investigator", replied Carlson. "And one who specializes in 'smear'", countered Fish.

Here the "judge" asked Rogge to reply, and Rogge was furious when he asserted: "Under the laws and Supreme Court decisions in this country, it is almost impossible to convict anyone of sedition or treason. You can't do it by legal means; hence I approve of such books as Carlson's and hope he writes such books every year or two, to arouse public sentiment against plotters."

As the case was less than half through at the end of 30 minutes, it was continued until January 6. On the jury, selected from ticket stubs and by an odd coincidence, was Hudson DePriest, the noted journalist, originally indicted with Editor C. Leon de Aryan & nine others in the first "sedition" case and subsequently exonerated by Rogge's grand jury.

SEN. THOMAS WOULD HALT ALL IMMIGRATION TO U. S.

WASHINGTON, — Sen. Elmer Thomas (D-Okla) brought a hot congressional issue to the fore with the assertion that all immigration into the United States should be halted immediately.

"I make no distinction as to race or nationality," Thomas told a reporter. "We already have too many people in this country."

Editor's Note: All "legal" immigration during the New Deal period was 75% Jewish, plus additional Jewish "black market" entrants. These Russophil Jews are here to form the bulwark of the Russian 5th column when Russia attacks the U.S.A. by flying missiles and paratroops.

SECRET FORMULA FOR WAR

Take, as the main body, any amount of Paganism and Religious Fascism and mix these to a paste with the foul liquid of public ignorance of the meaning of religion, education and economics. Put this kettle of mud over a hot fire of greed and hate, and competition. Bring to a boil, add equal parts of economic scarcity and private profit. Stir constantly with the propaganda spoon of lies, jazz and secret diplomacy. Season well with Pseudo-Patriotism, militarism, flag-waving and intolerance. When hard, cover this putrid mess with the destructive tools of Scientism. Serve red hot to the people as a regular daily diet, and soon they will all become crazy enough to start the bloodiest war in history.

American Patriots, Be Alert !

The New Deal died on November 5, 1946, partly as a result of the solid vote of 25,000,000 American citizens of German origin who thus expressed their pent-up feelings against the absurd boycott, smear, persecution and disfranchizing put in force against them by a small minority group in our midst which had so strongly become entrenched with the "Democratic" administration during the last fourteen years that anybody and anything in favor of American citizens of German blood was howled down as "subversive".

Enough has been seen during this long period that it is now thoroughly understood by every thinking person in the United States who is interested in the matter that the means to accomplish the destruction of the Republic of the United States, the overthrow of free enterprise, then setting up instead a super-world State and a World Economy, dominated by the Money Power, were:

1. The spreading of lies, smear and intellectual confusion, through control of government, radio, press, schools, churches, motion pictures and every channel of public information;
2. Taking over of industry, business and agriculture in the planned emergency, with fixing of prices and wages by the State, controlled by the Money Powers;
3. Intensive cultivation of dependence on the Money Power State by continuance of Planned Scarcity, keeping the citizens poor and jobless, alert for handouts;
4. Holding power through a vast and ever increasing army of State Job-Holders (we have now two federal jobholders for every hundred men, women and children comprising our entire U. S. population);
5. Increasing of debt to the money creators, until the Money Powers owned everything;
6. Setting up of a World Bank as the creative nucleus of the Super World State, by means of which every nation in the world would become subservient to the World Money Power, and nationalism would finally be destroyed.

While we may exult over the New Deal grave: dust to dust, ashes to ashes, and hell to hell — we must ever be aware that the Money Power slapped down the Republican Party under Herbert Hoover fourteen years ago, with its artificially created depression. It has the strength to slap down the Republican Party again, unless its leaders and the people slap down the Money Power first. If the Republicans serve Money Power, as they ever have in the past, then they may be permitted to stay in power for years. But if they strike against the World Bank, or refuse to go along with the Third World War plan to destroy Russia and its unorthodox money system, then we can only pity him who gets slapped.

Money Power puts the proposition for the Republicans:

"Either destroy Russia or be destroyed;
either war or a super-depression!"

For us common people there is only one other alternative:

"No time must be lost in organizing to watch every political move in Washington in order to prevent a recurrence of what we had to go through in the past fourteen years."

Now is the time to follow up this political clean-up and to organize in every community to make certain that the elements who were kicked out with the New Deal, do not creep back and hold power as before. Let us make sure that no such disgraceful proposition is ever again presented by the politicians to the common people, as when last year the citizenry of New York City had to vote either for a Jew, a synthetic Jew or a Judas, when they had to elect a new Mayor for that cosmopolitan city of 7,000,000 people.

We must not give unscrupulous war mongers and profiteers another opportunity to fleece the common people again by pushing us into a now already brewing World War III, when the last war has not even yet been declared officially as ended.

It is the duty of every patriotic American citizen to lend his best thought and effort toward such contribution as may seem to him or her just and proper as a means to restore the free functioning of the Republic of the United States, and of bringing about a world unity and a world wide prosperity that shall not again be broken and dissipated.

Hence our call to American patriots to be alert.

Alienizing America of the Founding Fathers

Muckraking Will Not Save US

By C. LEON de ARYAN

We see no reason for a flea,
But doubtless would if we were he.

Some folks imagine that dogs must have fleas to make them scratch. The more fleas a dog has to support the more it has to scratch and a dog's wellbeing may, then, be measured by his number of fleas. That must have been in the minds of the editors of the California Jewish Voice when they wrote:

"An English Path

"It has been historically true that the decline of a government is early indicated by its assaults on the Jews, rising in fury as decadence progressess, and culminating in great destruction upon the Jewish community and annihilation for itself.

"Czarist Russia, Fascist Poland, Nazi Germany, and earlier monarchical Spain are the classic examples. Each in its decline assailed and persecuted the Jews, an indulgence that only sped its departure from the world scene, giving way to opposite trends as the nation struggled to renascence.

"Today we see a Great Britain, signs of whose decline are beyond all doubt evident, increasingly 'putting the screws' on the Jews it can reach."

* * * *

While there is a connection between the decline of the various nations mentioned by the California Jewish Voice and the uprising of the people against the Jews, the moral is not that the dog will perish when he gets rid of his fleas. Of course, one cannot expect the "Voice" to tell us the truth. But here it is: Every country in history which was over-run by Jews had made slaves of the people who had to work for the Jews. The nation's inner life was so disrupted by the parasite intruders that by the time the people decided to free themselves the damage had progressed beyond repair. An ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure.

* * * *

175,000 JEWS IN LOS ANGELES

The editors of the California Jewish Voice again:

"If this city's 175,000 Jews were aware of the vital role Jewish Centers play in the life of a Jewish community, there is no question that the current Jewish Centers Association's $1,-500,000 building fund drive would be over-subscribed."

* * * *

And the Jewish Telegraphic Agency wires about the activities of President Truman in bringing more Jews over here while the nation has a housing shortage and our own people discover Jews buying up homes right and left, throwing out the tenants to the mercy of the weather.

WASHINGTON (JTA) — President Truman has assigned four ships to expedite the movement to the United States of 2,100 displaced persons with U. S. visas, who have been delayed at Bremerhaven due to lack of shipping, the White House announced. The vessels accommodate approximately nine hundred passengers each and will be kept in this service, the president said, "until the situation has been fully relieved."

* * * *

Yet, that is not enough. Did you ever stop to think how it comes that Jewish immigrants have more money than we natives and can buy up our homes at skyrocket prices? Did Hitler rob and kill them? Or did they rob the people wherever they used to live so that now they are on the run!—bringing their loot to buy us out!

* * * *

But, of course, they must have jobs. Now the best way to take jobs from Americans is to stampede state legislatures into passing FEPC laws. And here they go:

NEW YORK (Special to Voice) — Strong drives are under way to enact FEPC legislation in a number of northern states when legislatures convene next month. Reports to the Commission on Law and Social Action of the American Jewish Congress reveal that State campaign committees are already functioning in Connecticut, Illinois, Michigan and Pennsylvania, while Indiana, Ohio and Rhode Island are now organizing and bills are being readied for Maryland, Oregon, Colorado, Minnesota and West Virginia.

* * * *

JEWS RUN GERMANY AGAIN

Chanukah is a Jewish fire-worship festival which they plagiarized from the Aryans of Persia who lit fires at the Winter-Solsticium and celebrated the victory of the Sun over the demons of "darkness" as the days were lengthened again. It is the original "Christmas" of the Aryans; the lighted candles, on tables and trees. The lit fireplace and the songs of joy, full of warmth and heart warming love.

WAR CRIMES STAFF CONTRIBUTE GIFTS

NUREMBERG (JTA) — Phyllis and Robert Rosenthal, a young married couple who are employed as attorneys on the American war crimes staff, have collected $1,000 and gifts worth $500 from members of the staff of the international tribunal for displaced Jewish children. The couple said they thought the children needed Chanukah presents.

* * * *

And how did the Jews get control over Germany again? Simple!

Bernard Baruch, the official advisor to Wilson and to every President since, is the actual President and Commander-in-Chief. Officially he is an "advisor", he tells them what to do and they do it, too. So there you are. Baruch simply conscripted American youth and they fought the Germans and gave the country to Russia, to Communist France, to Rothschild's England and the whole Morgenthau plan is nothing but a Jewish extermination scheme.

* * * *

UN SCHEME TO CONTROL AMERICA

The greatest danger lies in the fact that today the Republicans, Democrats, Socialists, the Labor Racketeers and Westbrook Pegler, all are united in denouncing the Moscow-brand Communists. When you find them all in the same bed then it stinks.

The Sanhedrin method works. All the political, labor racket and muckraking stooges unite in ganging up on the Moscow-Communists to divert your attention from the Baruch-brand Communists right here under your nose.

While you are alarmed about those subversives who use force and violence to introduce changes instead of respecting the will of the people as expressed at properly conducted free elections, military conscription and regimentation of industry proceeds unabated. What is Communism but stateism by force and violence? And is military conscription not that very thing?!

Westbrook Pegler is a marvelous guy in exposing the labor racket, but he fails to tell you that this racket is one of the schemes of the Sanhedrin. Hearst would not print that. None of the political stooges have intelligence enough to study the underlying cause of the battle between employers and employees. Fools that they are, workers and employers are in the same boat fighting among themselves while the Sanhedrin robs them both and keeps them fighting.

How many politicians dare point to that truth? How many columnists and editors? They either lack the intelligence, the integrity or the guts. The plunderbund has the cash that pays the advertisements, fills the campaign chests at election, hence the people are kept in ignorance. Thus radio, press, pulpit and politicians, all of them work for the Sanhedrin. Those who claim to be "Christians", yet support military conscription and accept the notion that by violating every tenet of God's LAW, peace can be established by merely turning the A-Bomb over to Baruch, to hold it over the heads of the UN; are fools.

Good will and divine LOVE will enlighten the world to follow the path of the Golden Rule.

The UN has accomplished, can accomplish nothing except to appease Russia at the expense of the world. And Russia will not be appeased till Communism rules, everywhere in the world. Yet the only solution Baruch gives us is military conscription. What's the difference between a gang of Jews and Rockefeller oil-thieves imposing their regimentation upon us, or Stalin doing it? Where does America, as the Founders visioned it, come in?

Hence, pay less attention to the menace of Moscow-brand Communism and watch the Baruch-brand Communism, the Rockefeller UN-brand, for the UN is his baby, he houses and nurses it along, hoping with the help of Baruch's Jewish A-Bomb invention to eventually control even Russia's oil.

He mentions the Versailles Treaty and the Kellogg Pact as indispensables and inviolates, but none of the "democracies" observed them. The most notorious departures from the "obligations" of the Treaty were French and to a lesser degree British refusals to disarm after Germany's complete disarmament and British and French recognition of Polish and Lithuanian violations of the same treaty through the League of Nations which they controlled. Neither Britain, nor France, nor the United States referred to or observed the Kellogg Pact when they decided to go to war. The reasons given by Chamberlain and Daladier for declaring war on Germany were not based on it, nor did it figure in the many unauthorized acts of war through which Roosevelt projected us into war. It is the same old story which Harold Nicolson, well-known British statesman, parliamentarian and author in his notable work: "Peacemaking 1919" exposes and castigates. On page 193 he says: "The Anglo-Saxon is gifted with a limitless capacity for excluding his own practical requirements from the application of the idealistic theories which he seeks to impose on others", and "the Anglo-Saxon hesitates to adhere to a religion which he would not be prepared to apply to his own conduct as distinct from the conduct of others". In a less erudite and also less involved version: "The Anglo-Saxon uses one yardstick on himself and another on others".

In his report in the September issue of the American Bar Association Journal Mr. Gregory calls special attention to the words of the last paragraph of the Moscow Declaration of November 1, 1943, which says that the "major war criminals will be punished by the joint decision of the Governments of the Allies". That does away with the fraudulent claim that the "Nuremberg 'Trial'" constitutes new international law and makes it clear that it is just another version of the age-old "Vae Victis".

The control Council, consisting of the Commanders-in-Chief of the four major victor nations was consulted in establishing the "International Military Tribunal". It is the same council that abolished the paragraphs of the Geneva Convention prohibiting the use of prisoners of war in dangerous pursuits by supplying German war prisoners for the removal of landmines which was like the imposition of a death sentence.

According to Mr. Gregory "the tribunal was lawfully created", although he states at the same time that it was "bound by no civil precedents" and that "its jurisdiction and powers are only those bestowed on it by the appointing authority". "Lawful creation" and Victors' vindictiveness are for Mr. Gregory identical.

In support of his justification for the validity of the tribunal he adduces as a precedent article 227 of the Versailles Treaty by which the Victors of 1918 threatened to "try" William II. If this was a "legal precedent", then anything any Victor in any war at any time did or threatened to do to the loser is a precedent.

Although conceding that "duress was present in the execution of the Versailles Treaty" Mr. Gregory asserts that "that is true of every treaty between victor and vanquished", but he fails to inform that it was maintenance of the allied starvation blockade from the signing of the armistice to that of the Treaty, which cost Germany half a million lives, that compelled the Germans to sign and that a similar threat of death did not hang over a single one of what was called a "peace-treaty" up to that time. According to Webster a treaty is "an agreement made by negotiation or diplomacy", but at Versailles there was no negotiation and no diplomacy. That is why the Germans called it a dictate. They had not the slightest influence in the making of it, were not met and were not consulted. The Victors of 1945 to '46 carried their unilateral methods still further. In 1918 they imposed a treaty by threat of annihilation. In 1946 they "try" the government of the losers and continue the war by economic methods and partition. A dictate that is no treaty cannot be expected to be observed as a treaty but as a millstone.

Mr. Gregory continues: "But the facts that the rights to create a tribunal and to try him (Emporer William) were not exercised, does not negative the existence of those rights". Whose rights? Only Victors' rights, "rights" arising from a victory and created according to the age-old and always true motto: "Might is right".

He also defends the staffing of the tribunal with victors' representatives by asserting that it does not depart from practice by courts-martial in criminal cases, but he does not consider that such courts only sit in judgment over their own nationals on cases that are on the domestic statutes as crimes.

He attaches much importance to the "intellectual power, fine legal ability, broad experience, high character and single-minded devotion to the task in hand" of "the distinguished members of the bench". What does Mr. Gregory know about the individuals? Has he delved into the character of British, French and especially of Russian participants? How, then can he talk about their qualifications and if he could prove what he claims, what difference would that make to the illegality of the "trial"? That he finds it necessary to engage in such fulsome and unverifiable praise is in itself an admission of weakness and the feeling that the case and cause are rotten. Even when such qualifications exist, are they ever made much of or even mentioned in ordinary trials?

Mr. Gregory's line of reasoning is much like that of Mr. Smith and, of course, of Mr. Jackson. For him the only aggressor was Germany when in relation to the western nations she was the aggressee.

It is impossible to counter all of Mr. Gregory's misstatements in a short article. But that he calls the German accused and condemned "no better than pirates or brigands or murderers" and that "they were not obeying but giving orders" shows how a jurist can turn into a propagandist. I wonder how Mr. Gregory would consider American underlings if they refused to carry out executive orders. In that case, no doubt, he would advocate the firing squad. (To be continued)

Traitorous German Scientists Double-Crossed by Stalin

BERLIN,—A young woman en route to Russia with her fiance in a train load of German scientists and technical workers deserted the group near Dresden in the soviet occupation zone. In an interview thru an intermediary, she said she fled when Red Army guards announced that the party was to be divided into three separate groups—the men to one destination, the women to another, and the children to a third camp.

"When we left Berlin," she said, "we had been told that families would not be separated. Unmarried men were permitted to take their fiancees. When we were told that men and women were to be separated I was panic stricken. I had heard of both Nazis and Communists segregating the sexes for slave labor. I jumped the train at the first opportunity and hitchhiked back to Berlin."

NOTE PUZZLES FAMILY

A smuggled note from Moscow brought other news of Germans shipped to Russia after Red soldiers had called at their homes in the middle of the night. A soviet train guard brought a wadded scrap of paper to a Berlin worker who relayed it to the family of a German researcher.

"My dears," said the familiar writing, "after a journey of only six days, part of us are now at our destination, a suburb of Moscow. A laboratory had been installed ready for us.

"Housing conditions can become good, if our furniture arives. I hope it will. I am living with M—— and F—— in a three and a half room flat. When will we see each other again? All my love (name withheld)."

The family and friends of the writer considered the note intentionally obscure. They tried to read between the lines.

What did he mean "part of us" had arrived? What had become of the others in the party?

TEN PERSONS IN FLAT

M—— and F—— referred to were two families of nine persons when they left Berlin. That would make 10 persons in a three and a half room flat for housing conditions which "can be good".

What was meant by "if our furniture arrives; I hope it will"? When the train left Berlin the furniture was in boxcars on the same train.

The family and friends were puzzled and worried by the final sentence, "When will we see each other again?"

Previously published reports on experiences of other Germans whisked to Russia told of trains being stopped after crossing the reich border, scientists put in planes, some to be flown to Moscow and others to Odessa, while their families were left in the trains with the announcement that they would follow by rail and ship.

Dear Kosti:

Yours about the Pharisees celebrating reminds me of mine as enclosed in No. 80, page 3, col. 4, "Armistice". Your two col. S. T. essay or preachment was a wonder for any but a perfessor' like LDB or me. I may some day fool away a little time suggesting some different terminology or something as I have done right along, but not for public consumption as for that it is about perfect.

Chas. H. Ingersoll

Your recent reference to the coal subject connecting it with the Feudal system and Divine Righters was especially fine, and I am also commenting on that possibly adding a little information, but most commendation.

Kindest regards. Sincerely yours,

ARMISTICE DAY CELEBRATION

'Another Holiday' may not be out of order: and of course an armistice at almost any price is meet for rejoicing. But there's a phase of hypocrisy in some of the 'rites' which are said to honor our dead heroes and which I robustly resent.

If we are incapable of any more real concept of life than to KILL it off about 4 times every 100 year: and if we can contrive no defense to throwing millions of our HERO-BOYS into this killing, I think ATONEMENT is the right rite for us.

If a 'celebration' of this and some similar days could be organized in which we could drag from their hiding places every leader of politics, education and religion who had done anything to favor or condone the war. If we could make it the time to organize study of ECONOMIC CAUSES:—

If we could do something besides stultify ourselves and exhibit our abysmal weakness to the destroyed millions' bereaved and broken, I would then become an active celebrant of Armistice Day.

ARE TITLE-HOLDERS HORRIFIC?

The Beckwith Stockton economic school poses title-holders of land as public enemy No. One. While it may be only a matter of 'terminology' I am betting that there may be danger in denouncing title-holders who are actually and potentially everyone, when you mean land-monopolists who are not 1 in 25.

There's nothing inherently wrong in 'title-holding'. Title-holding is the private ownership of land, the alternative to which is common ownership of land which is communism. The harm as to land is not its OWNERSHIP. It is its MONOPOLY. Everyone wants to and should BE, a title-holder.

So this is a species of CULTISM: I say 'species' because Mr. Beckwith is a sensitive man and doesn't like his cultism straight. I'm mentioning it again today because I've just run across another misuse of the word by a mutual friend.

These cult notions travel fast. Here Kosti de Aryan in his San Diego 'Broom' says: "The idea is that land values are not produced by the TITLE-HOLDERS, etc." The values are produced 5 to 1 more by them than the monopolists, so Kosti watch your step when you follow that trail!

Dewey for President?

I am aware that he has spoken on many topics in his campaigns. He is a typical politician in that he can be found on both sides of numerous subjects. For instance, he was for isolationism and against collaboration abroad and then for them. He was for an alliance with England and against it.

Like Roosevelt and Willkie, he gave the most solemn pledges that he was opposed to our going into any European war—until the preparedness drums began to beat, and then he, too, flopped over. He has tried hard to be all things to all men—except the most obviously unpopular. He has played up to the liberals and also to the tories.

He has said nothing since the Presidential campaign to lead one to believe that he has cast aside the role of Mr. Facing-Both-Ways. He is still governed by his desire to please all camps, barring only Communists.

Dewey is a ruthless man who will take shortcuts to his ends, who nurses grudges, and is not ready to forgive. When he was a public prosecutor and making his reputation, as the New Republic has put it: "Dewey in order to obtain swift convictions, brushed aside the most fundamental rights of witnesses, defendants, and others connected with his prosecutions. He was far from punctilious about the right to counsel and reasonable bail. While Dewey avoided the third degree, he faced witnesses with a choice of testifying for the prosecution or being indicted for complicity." He also used freely the "joinder indictment" under which a number of persons, innocent and guilty, can be tried on the same charge—a very bad practice.

1946 Birthday Celebration of Dr. Otoman Zar-A'dusht Hanish

In last week's issue I neglected to put in the by-line and give credit to Fred for the report on the Mazdaznan celebration of Dr. Hanish's birthday. That might have left the impression in some minds that I had written the report.

I have instructed Fred and David to frequent the Temple meetings in L. A., study whatever they can learn there, since it is the only Zoroastrian active group in this part of the country, and make their reports in THE BROOM. I can no longer afford to do it, having more important calls on my time and must under no further consideration submit to tolerance by inferior minds who at present have informed me repeatedly that I am persona non grata at the Temple because they don't care to have the public mistake my personal attitude against the powers that be in the Federal Administration and the co-incidental Jew-control of our public life, for the policy of the Mazdaznan Temple Association.

Count Kosti's 1946 Message to the Winter Solsticium Gahanbar

TEMPORARY CONCESSIONS TO ANIMALISM

Fred continues to experience the same disappointment I had when I arrived in 1913 at the Temple in Chicago. Previously I had foolishly expected to find a replica of Ainyahita at Lowell, Massachusetts, when I paid my respects to "Mother Maria" as the female representative of the Mazdaznan THOUGHT in the U S A.

How shocked was I in the morning, after sleeping at the Temple in Chicago, when I met the little master in the corridor and he asked me whether I had my morning cup of coffee. I was young then, full of zeal to live up to the letter of our Mazdaznan instructions.

"But master, we don't take coffee in the morning. Are we not going to have our exercises?"

"Coffee is good to wake our dormant cells Count Kosti", replied Dr. Hanish. "Let's go into the kitchen" and he led the way.

In my guilelessness I continued, "Are we not to awaken our cells with prayers and song, with morning exercises? I have been doing it for years."

But Beeler, Philips and the others entered, the master prepared the coffee, explained in detail how to do it according to rules and all except myself started their morning with a cup.

And now Fred, too, protests that he and David attended the banquet in honor and memory of the master's birthday, but could get no dessert since it was of the type of German bakery wares made with eggs, butter and denatured flour and sugar they don't touch anymore. Fred wrote they even had to pirate the salads at the empty seats to merely get enough greens to eat with the main dish which was ample in bulk but was not followed by an assortment of figs, dates, raisins and nuts for them to choose from for dessert as becomes the true Mazdaznan.

The boys must learn that Dr. Hanish was no little tin-god Jesus. He had his full quota of human frailties and ignorant idiosyncrasies, provincialism of his Asiatic background and a temper that at times was downright rotten and destructive and brought him a world of grief, alienating many a friend.

Dr. Hanish was born with a crippled heart. The shock the sympathetic Entity received upon coming in contact with the prevailing criminal atmosphere at the BANDIT-court, misnamed royalty, where he was born, tore his heart, even muscularly, so that only the immense impulse of his divine destiny and desire to fulfill the mission he came for, kept him alive during his 94 years thereafter, by skillfully applying breath-power and what in America would be called "Christian Science" attitude of mind and will to live. Under the increasingly destructive impacts in the criminal world of today, surrounded by eager but moronic followers, naturally, the man needed stimulants to overcome the ever paralysing effects of negative minds; hence, he did then, as in many instances I also do now at my age, use coffee to keep going when the body gave out.

The boys, like myself then, have to learn to distinguish between the message and the messenger. Fortunately, I had been born a mystic in continued contact with "headquarters" so that I have a standard by which to guage. Hence I remonstrated everlastingly with the master whenever I noticed a deviation from the rules, especially had fights with him over the necessity of "temporary concessions to the moronic animalism" that perpetuated old habits contrary to our teachings. He almost never took the time to tell me in detail and patiently why he was doing as he did but scornfully blew up over my ignorance and audacity to question his authority. That never satisfied me and what made matters even worse, for instead of leaving it at that, after every blow-up in private he aired his displeasure in public meetings by making me the whipping-boy of his, at times, rottenly disparaging remarks that painted me as a disruptive black sheep of the family. It hurt me deeply because I had laid such high store by him when "headquarters" had advised me not to call at the home-temples, as I was on my way there to refresh my present body thru a course of instructions before embarking on my "job" in the west, but to join Dr. Hanish and collaborate with him. The remarkable part was that he "recognized" me immediately, wanted to send me to Germany and England, but I demurred. He sent Beeler and Gloria and I stayed behind.

My instructions from "headquarters" were to learn American conditions from the grass roots up, hence I refused to do "active" missionary work till I had my understanding of how Americans live, feel, think, by beginning at the foot of the ladder. That is the advantage I have over foreign missionaries who impose their viewpoints upon the natives whose nature they don't quite understand.

These conflicts between Dr. Hanish's zeal to have me operate as his apostle, while I followed inner instructions at variance with his fancies, well-nigh made us antagonists except that each of us in our particular fashion are in love with Mazdaznan and have given our best efforts to it. After every major blow-up I stayed away from him for years at a time. When we met again he acted as if he found a long lost friend and chided me for my absence. For a while we were friends until some other point of difference in idiosyncrasy brought on another explosion of temper.

The reason that Dr. Hanish revamped the whole dietary schedule which originally followed the lines practiced at "headquarters", to make it responsive to the animalistic habits of his moronic batch of followers, was a most frightful experience he had with the first group.

Full of zeal to produce a Mazdaznan community in the west, Dr. Hanish was carried away to the point where he used persuasion to hasten the process. The result was disastrous. We are strictly forbidden to proselyte. Mazdaznan is not the repeating of creeds, formulas, rituals; but direct contact with the FIRE of LIFE itself. This fire is more potent than high voltage or "atom-Power-radiation". Each individual has to unfold gradually by his own inner evolution into the state where his faculties awaken to the presence of this fire which is our life, generates our mental processes and regulates all organic functions. Any premature interference with cellular processes unbalances and fully one third of his first class went insane or nearly insane. (To be concluded)

Christ's Golden Rule Series No. 2

THE BEST STRENGTH LIES IN THE BEST THOUGHT

Dear Kosti:

Many thanks for the lovely Christmas surprise. My health has improved and I am recovering from the siege. But I am worried about you at your age. At least you should take eggs and milk; the animals are happy to exchange them for the care they get, there is no killing involved.

With my best wishes for a Happy and Better New Year,

Cordially, WASHINGTON ADAMS.

Dear W. A.:

Thanks for your good wishes. You have always been concerned about my food. My mother and my wife were, too, and they both ran me down because neither ever realized that to help me you must know me, first, and serve my needs not your notions.

I am an ARYAN, but that does not carry its full meaning to you. An ARYAN is an individual who represents the image of God in earth, and to the extent that he is conscious of the FIRST Principle of LIFE, he complies with it.

You know quite well that we all are supposed to represent the image of God in earth. You are taught that in early childhood in Sunday school, but it has no meaning to you, evidently. You are also taught, "Seek ye FIRST the Kingdom of God and its RIGHTEOUSNESS and ALL these things will be added."

Now why not do it?

LIFE lies in the knowledge of God and HIS RULE, called the "Kingdom", because it alone is "righteous". Hence we ARYANS start with Good Thought. And naturally, God being Spirit His strength lies in the Spirit, not in matter, which He molds to His Will.

Why do you expect me to go to the animal for strength and exchange chamber-maid services for eggs and milk? You might feel called to be a butler to a stable of cows and hens, but I don't hanker after being in debt to their behinds.

My strength lies in serving God. ALL these things you try to get from the behind of the animals I get by serving God thru the FIRST principle of LIFE: Breath.

Why should I partake of the food contained in greens and grains, by getting it second-hand from cows and chickens when I have it first-hand from vegetation myself and dispense with being a butler and chambermaid to a stable of animals?

The cells of the egg and of the animal milk are calculated to give immediate nourishment to the young of its kind. Now my cells have an entirely different aim in construction. I am NOT an animal, I am a THINKER, an ARYAN. Animals are controlled by habitual, natural instinct. ARYANS think, deliberate, ELECT what they want to do. Animals cannot elect. They must follow the pattern of their breed. We have ingenuity and use it to MASTER nature and its processes and forces. Thus we rise above the animal and are human only to the extent that we did rise above the animal. Why do you expect me to degrade myself to be a butler and chambermaid to cater to the animal hindquarters for a living, as Henry Sorge did to escape being drafted.

I am not worried in the least about my health and strength. I have only one aim: "Seek ye First the Kingdom of God and its Righteousness". You are seeking ALL these things instead and worry about them, I don't.

May the New Year bring you wisdom and understanding of the ways of God;

Sincerely, KOSTI.

ROOSEVELT MORALITY

The shakedowns of war contractors by Sen. Bilbo, coming on top of the similar scandals concerning former Rrepresentatives May and Coffee, demonstrate that Mr. Roosevelt's so-called party of humanity was a party of shameless grafters and scoundrels. Roosevelt's own responsibility in the matter is plain. A man who did not scorn to use his high office in extracting $200,000 from John Hartford for his son, Elliott, wouldn't be hampered by ethical niceties, nor was he.

The solemn fakers who have represented themselves as the righteous wing of the New Deal have affected to look down their noses at the Bilbos and Mays of the party, but the testimony has proved beyond dispute that Roosevelt himself was putting these men in the way of their graft. When Bilbo wanted a 14 million dollar war contract for some friends who were willing to kick back $30,000 to him and then attempt to charge it off to the taxpayers as a legitimate expense, the order that Bilbo's chosen contractors should get the job came from the White House.

The contract was issued without competitive bidding, as the law requires, and was put thru in the jig time of two weeks after the contractor first heard of the project. The army engineers have explained the rush by saying that they wanted to allocate all war funds before the end of the fiscal year so that they would not be obliged to turn back any money to the treasury. In this, the war department said, it was backed up by orders from Roosevelt.

The line from Roosevelt to Bilbo thus is plain. Roosevelt, while posing as the great friend of the Negroes to win their votes, was seeing to it that their most virulent enemy was getting a bribe. This was no isolated instance of grafting in the ranks of the New Deal. Rep. Coffee admitted getting $2,500 from a war contractor in the state of Washington, and witnesses have testified to the fact that May, using his post as chairman of the house military affairs committe, was throwing munitions contracts to the Garsson combine and, on the phone, was asking the Garssons when he would get "that $3,000". Sen. Barkley landed a fat job for his son from the same outfit.

We have little doubt that when the Republicans start investigating war time scandals they will find that practically everybody in the New Deal was cutting in on the boodle. Under President Truman, the party is still displaying its penchant for larceny. George Allen, Truman's court jester, selected by the President as a director of the Reconstruction Finance corporation, has just been accused by the New York state insurance department of collecting $5,000 a year above his salary as vice president of the Home Insurance company for "traveling expenses".

The New Deal was so long in power and considered itself so firmly entrenched that its members thought there was no limit to what they could get away with. The party reeked with corruption and still does. When the investigations are over, there are going to be many highly eligible candidates for the penitentiary. The American people will want to see that they get their just desserts. —Chicago Tribune.

Dear Sir,

Please send my father's paper to this new address. As the owner of the building refuses to let us get the mail there any more as he hates the Broom. It seems that other people read the mail which is also against the law.

Sincerely, —H. F. New York City.

Now that the Reds and their fellow travellers have been whipped at the polls they will resort to sabotage, violence, strike agitation and the formation of a new pro-Soviet political party.

G. O. P. Admits "FEPC" Is Out — Taft Looms As Next President — Portal to Portal

By WASHINGTON ADAMS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28 (Special) — Some of the Republican wheelhorses have heard of the California referendum against the infamous "FEPC" proposal.

Grapevine sources quote leader Joe Martin as throwing cold water on a proposal to revive an "FEPC" bill in the next Congress.

To a prominent Negro (Republican?), who reminded him that the 1944 G.O.P. platform contained an FEPC plank, Martin is said to have replied:

"That FEPC plank was a bid for the Negro vote, but they didn't accept the bid. They went out and voted for Roosevelt.

"To be frank with you, we are not going to pass the FEPC bill, but it has nothing to do with the Negro vote. We are supported mainly by New England and Midwest industrialists who would stop their contributions if we passed a law that would compel them to stop religious as well as racial discrimination in employment. I am not saying I agree with them, but that is a situation we face, so we may as well be realistic. We intend to do a lot for the Negroes, but we can't afford to pass the FEPC bill."

* * * *

ROBERT A. TAFT'S CHANCES for the Presidency have gone up several notches recently. While both he and Senator-elect Bricker deny that they have agreed on Taft, with Bricker stepping out of the race and supporting Taft, it is believed that they have agreed that Taft shall have Ohio's support in the convention, with the proviso that if a deadlock develops after several ballots, the Ohio delegation will swing to Bricker.

These two gentlemen are the ablest in the Republican fold, and either one would make a great and good President. And each is able to put up a far better and more successful campaign than cold-handed Tom Dewey.

Either one could quote Knox's book on the "Republican Party" (1892), page 10:

"From the outset the Republican party has been the supporter of the principle that the United States is the land of those who are its citizens and does not belong to foreigners; that the prosperity of American labor, in all branches of industry, should be America's first consideration, and that other nations should take care of themselves . . . The policy of the Republican party has always been the policy of protection of American industries."

Because of its low tariff policies, the Democratic party has usually been favored by FOREIGN governments, especially by England.

These statesmen could quote Prof. Wm. Starr Myers' book on the Republican Party (page 241): "Giving the Negro the vote in the Southern States was one of the most mistaken policies ever undertaken by the American people."

Prof. Meyers continues: "It is well known now that LINCOLN never intended wholesale Negro enfranchisement, but was willing to go only to the extent of giving the vote to a few of the more intelligent or educated members of the race, or to those who might also own property . . . To raise the ex-slaves over their ex-masters was a travesty on government and justice."

The Northern abolitionists who controlled the Republican party following Lincoln's death were filled with hate and revenge; and they were the greatest aggregation of crackpots and screwballs who ever betrayed a great people.

PORTAL TO PORTAL

Suddenly out of a clear sky comes the "portal to portal" back-pay demands of the unions, amounting to possibly SIX BILLIONS in money.

Reds rejoice in these demands, for if fulfilled they would destroy most of America's industrial machine and pave the way for communism.

Ever since the year 1934, I have been considering Roosevelt's Red New Deal as the "period of the great stupidity." Only the herculanean efforts of the Republican Congress can save our republic from ruin.

Defense Fund for Joan McBride

Dear Kosti:

Just received your letter about the Geneva Convention articles, also THE BROOM, thanks for the same. I am in a big hurry so forgive this short letter but I want to thank you for that, also for the letters I received a few days ago with enclosed $5 twice. Was happy to hear from Ferne, please thank her for the lovely card and the enclosed $5; that makes $15 altogether before Christmas. Am happy to hear she was with you for the holidays and I appreciate her good wishes.

I am just having lunch, wish you were sitting opposite me. Will see my attorney tomorrow and give him your letters. He is very interested in the information I get from you. Those clippings from the Chicago TRIBUNE, too, will be helpful to him. Isn't that tragic what the German P.O.W. have to suffer in France? It makes my food stick in my throat when I think of that and those American and French officials and officers call themselves human beings and CHRISTIANS!

I saw Jim Christmas-day. He seemed cheerful, said he sent me a dozen red roses but I did not get them, neither did I get his Christmas card. I was not allowed to bring him anything, not even a piece of candy or cookies for Christmas.

Well, I must say so along for now. Will write you more in a few days.

Pray for me.

Best wishes to all, Love, JOAN.

Dear Joan:

Ferne has gone to L. A. to attend the Mazdaznan Gahanbar, Winter-Sonnen-Wende. I also sent Fred and since David is there, all of them will attend. I am not wanted, being like yourself a "seditionist" against war and an enemy of the SANHEDRIN while the business-manager of the L. A. Temple is in the OIL business with Rockefeller and Co. so that the Temple crowd is afraid to have me conduct my share of the Gahanbar which naturally would fall to me thru seniority and experience.

Enclosed are $7 which arrived since my last remittance. I can think of nothing further to add to my suggestions for your attorney at present.

I'll pray for you and all who understand what is at stake will join me.

Love, KOSTI

Dear Mr. de Aryan—

Enclosed is a postal note for $2.00. One for you as a little Xmas remembrance and one dollar for Joan's defense fund.

I wish you every good thing for the New Year including golden good health.

Sincerely, Miss H.

* * * *

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

Sorry for the delay in renewing my subscription. With parcels to Germany, England and trying to gather clothing, sure takes time and energies. Would not miss the Broom for anything it is harder hitting every issue.

Enclosed $5.00. Take what change is left for Joan McBride fund. Good luck to you and your paper. With Best Wishes for a saner New Year, I'll remain, sincerely, yours — Mrs. G.

The following exact quotation taken from Mr. Meader's report on what is going on in Germany helps to explain why there was so much opposition against publishing the report: "Officers sold Army supplies and smuggled out Jews and diamonds. Only 400 of 3000 Jewish displaced persons in one camp will do any work. For the most part they 'expect to be cared for, and complain when things are not as well done as they think they should be.' A trainload of Jews from Poland 'refused to get off . . . because the camp was not good enough.' In some instances, 'black market activities have offered a convenient substitute for regular employment and certain criminal elements have committed numerous crimes of violence.' Most Jews among the displaced persons are overweight."

THE "RELIGION" OF RUSSIA

By SANDRA WHITTEMORE

During the war years Earl Browder offered himself on the sacrificial altar that the capitalist world might be made to believe that the Communist party line had swung so far to the right that the lion and the lamb could lie down together. That the trick worked any one knew who dared to express a doubt as to the purpose or permanency of that swing. Upon his head descended all the wrath of the "liberal" world. Red-baiter, hate-monger, and social-fascist were some of the invectives hurled at him. He was also "undemocratic" and "un-American".

Of all the strange things abroad in our land this is one of the strangest; we may speak our minds vigorously in criticism or condemnation of our own government and be immune from censure, but if we dare question the ways of the Soviet Union we are called "un-American" and "undemocratic".

This paradox may be understood if we realize that Communism (Sovietism), is above all else, a religion. It has its God, its devil, its book, its church and its heaven and hell. It holds out hope of a millenial age, world-wide, but unlike Jehovah's Witnesses—"the law will go forth from Russia and the word of the law from Moscow".

The myth of the good-life grows in proportion to the distance from the father-land. In the United States and Canada it grows and flourishes like the green bay tree, but in those areas which are now experiencing the blessings of communism the Soviet myth is in a very sickly condition.

In Canada recently a poor woman who was testifying regarding the assistance she had given a Soviet spy said she did it because Russia was "good to poor people". This illustrates the pathetic side of the great deception. This woman, like millions of others on her economic level, knows nothing of the other millions in that far away heaven who have died in slave labor camps, or from man-made famine, or of the other millions who have been uprooted from their home and sent to the far off reaches of Siberia to labor as long as life stayed in their bodies.

If she should be told of these things by those who know them to be true she would dismiss the thought as a capitalist lie, and her faith would grow stronger. It has always been so with the faithful of all religions during that period in which they believe that Satan and his host are arraigned against them. Whether Satan takes the form of the Capitalist world or has hoofs, horns and tail matters little.

The new religion not only appeals to the poor and down trodden, it has also captured the imagination of a host of intellectuals. Those who scoff and ridicule and Amy McPherson can revel in the exhilaration of an emotional experience and still preserve their intellectuality.

A Communist recently advised, "Give them scientific emotionalism until their tears run in the gutters."

Harry Flannery (Feb. 23, 1946), reporting Stalin's speech, said that the audience was on the verge of religious ecstacy all through the speech and that cries of "long live Stalin", filled the air. (To be concluded)

THEY KNOW THEIR FASCISTS

Epithets used by Hashomer Hatzair and Tnuath Achduth Avodah at the Congress sessions to describe the Revisionists were completely out of order. Why use the label "fascist" regarding any faction at the World Zionist Congress? Fascism is indelibly associated with the slaughter of six million Jews.

—B'nai B'rith Messenger, L.A.

Editor's Note: Mad people and children often tell the truth. It was the Big Sanhedrin Jews who financed Hitler to slaughter the little Jews.

Harold Stassen is the B'nai B'rith candidate for President of the U. S. on the Republican ticket. Stassen was in conference with Henry Monsky in the Blackstone Hotel in Chicago. Stassen has access to unlimited sums of money and is conducting the most brazen campaign in the history of recent Presidential elections. It is generally believed that such intemperate sums of money are likely to be made available that it is difficult to estimate how strong he may become in some quarters.

Our Moronic Militarists

EVERYWHERE IN THE USA, Dec. 31,—"Yesterday a hero, today a bum", these are the news and they don't apply merely to Pvt. Jimmy Hill, 17.

While jittery because his bride-to-be was "waiting at the church" in San Francisco, he knocked a window pane out during guard duty at Hamilton Field, California. To protect himself he put on a very good show which was immediately taken at face value by the "corporal of the guard", 21, who started shooting wildly to drive away "6 robbers" in army uniforms, who "had designs" on a $250,000 payroll at the field's finance office.

The brass hats fell for the show, eagerly spread the "heroic" news. The Army "Intelligence(?)" and the FBI swallowed it whole and the yellow press and radio spread it thick and fast. Finally, the youngster could not explain some items such as lack of empty shells, nor bullet marks that were not there, if the "bandits" had "shot back" and Jimmy had told the truth.

Believe it or not, but the story of Hill is the story of FDR and Churchill.

The British empire was going to the dogs, the Newdeal, too, so FDR and Churchill conspired to do some shooting and tell a story of great heroism on their part in protecting "democracy", everywhere in the world, by giving the idots FOUR, count them, Four Freedoms. So they threw Tyler Kent in jail to hide their conspiracy and Hitler (another Jimmy Hill, only in Germany) obliged, since all three were being financed by the same scheming SANHEDRIN, and with the help of Stalin, Poland was invaded. Now at the Nuernberg trial Stalin was proclaimed a Saint while his partner Hitler became a war criminal.

But the same stupidity, the same beastly gullibility, the same penchant for heroism which made the "corporal of the guard" shoot at the imagined "return of fire by the bandits", animates all military brass hats to commit mass murder. They are nothing but highly trained beasts with a human mind perversely used. The same gullible public ate the "heroism" and the same Pope blessed the "Allied Liberators" and their arms which devastated Europe and turned Stalin's hordes loose. Now, even Leon Bloom, the Jewish premier of France, asked for American troops to overpower his revolting slaves in Indo-China, since American gullibility and shooting propensities have become proverbial.

From 1933 to 1941, 75% of the U. S. net population gain from immigration was Jewish, according to official figures. (These figures may be found in the World Almanac.) In addition, many people in Washington are of the opinion that most of the six million Jews allegedly killed by Hitler have either sneaked into this country illegally or are now trying to get in. They are said to be swarming across the Mexican border where the black market fee for aiding a Jewish refugee to enter illegally is $500 per head.

Christmas in Germany

BERLIN,—When the newsreel came on in the State Opera House the Berliners were amused to see a picture of a stout middle aged baldheaded man with a knapsack on his back and a suitcase in hand starting out on the day's round to collect Christmas gifts for the family.

Spying an unguarded coal truck the man sidled up and swiped some coal. He boarded Berlin's electric railway, found an empty compartment, and began cutting the stuffing out of the seats so that his wife could make a cushion.

CUTS PIECE FROM WINDOW

Then he nipped out a glass cutter and deftly cut out a section of the window so that he could have a mirror for the cold bathroom of his shabby flat.

Remembering that his kitchen was without a light the Berliner then stepped into a public lavatory and unscrewed the light bulb.

Back on the street again, he noticed an unguarded grocery and quickly shoveled potatoes into his bag. In the front yard of what had once been a villa, he saw a fir tree. No one was about and it was the work of a moment to snap it off and he had a Christmas tree.

LIFTS EVENING PAPER

Sniping several cigaret butts on the sidewalk our small time operator neatly lifted an evening newspaper from a stand while the newsboy's back was turned and he was ready for home, a good day's work accomplished.

By the time the newsreel ended the audience was rocking with mirth. While this Russian licensed German movie was shown to point to a moral of what not to do, every one in the audience recognized it as not too far from daily reality.

PROPOSED CITIZENS OF U. N.

A San Franciso attorney, who received the first annual award given by the congregation of Temple Sherith Israel, according to a newspaper report, proposes that displaced persons of Europe be made "the first citizens of the United Nations, with the full right and full privileges of such citizenship." The attorney suggests that the United States government, as well as that of other nations of the United Nations, make these displaced persons citizens of the United Nations. In other words, build up a government above a government, so that each nation would have an international group to further agitate the government, as most of the agitation that has arisen in the United States since the plot of the first World War worked out, has come from alien minded persons from Europe, or from persons in our midst who will not put on national consciousness, because they think it is smart to be international; whereas, no one can be international until he or she has become thoroughly nationalized. True internationalism would be a form of brotherhood, with all nations centering to the Ideals of Government and Credit within their own particular nation.

ANCIENT FIRE WORSHIP !

Chanukah, commemorating the re-dedication of the Temple at Jerusalem 165 B. C.E. is being celebrated this week—starting Tuesday, Dec. 17 through December 25.

The festival originated at the time when Judas Maccabeus and his brothers raised the flag of revolt against the Greek King of Syria, Antiochus Epiphanes. As a festival of lights it is probably of older origin than 165 B.C.E., but was given a new interpretation by this event, which culminated in the reconstruction of the Temple. The Temple had been defiled by the Hellenists in their struggle for control of the Jewish people.

Chanukah has been considered mainly as a children's festival, a season of rejoicing and exchange of gifts celebrated generally in the home by the lighting of lights starting with one the first night and adding a light each night for eight nights.

COLD NO'S

No, your snow-snoot isn't of much help. And while you're at it, defrost your wits as well as your windshield so you won't get caught with your panes down again. You must see danger to avoid it, so keep those defrosters and wipers working. Don't forget the heater, tire chains and headlights, either, when preparing for winter.
